

The course will be presented by some of the world’s leading experts in minimally invasive and endoscopic surgical techniques. The focus of the workshop will span basic principles and equipment, advanced techniques and the role of adjunctive tools. The format will include didactic lectures with ample time for hands-on training. Don’t miss this opportunity to learn from and interact with some the world’s leading neurosurgeons. Spaces for the workshop are limited so book your spot early.

International faculty

Stefan Wolfsberger (Austria)

Takeo Goto (Japan)

Alexander Micko (Austria)

Manas Panagrahi (India)

Jay Riva-Cambrin (Canada)

Mohamed El Beltagy (Egypt)

Adrian Caceres (Costa Rica)

Local faculty

Llewellyn Padayachy (South Africa)

Basil Enicker (South Africa)